Paper 1 Observational Study

October/November 2005

10 hours maximum

May be opened and given to candidates upon receipt.

READ THESE INSTRUCTIONS FIRST

Write your name, Centre number, candidate number and question number clearly on the top right-hand corner of the front of each sheet of paper.

Answer one question.

Choose one of the subjects overleaf. In some cases, candidates may not be able to represent some of the subjects listed from direct observation during the examination itself, in particular Interiors or Exteriors. In these cases, it is permissible to produce supporting studies from direct observation and to produce the final examination piece using the supporting studies as a reference point.

In addition to the examination piece, up to three sheets of supporting work should be submitted. These should be the sheets of preparatory work undertaken after receipt of this paper. Candidates should refer to their preparatory work during the examination.

All sheets must be correctly labelled and securely fastened at the top left-hand corner.

Candidates should make a study or studies from direct observation from one of the following. They may consult their Art Teacher if they wish. Studies may be of either the whole or part of the subject. Small specimens or details may be enlarged.

- (b) A small brief case or hold-all from which personal items are spilling out. You should Or select the items to conform to a theme which could be conjurer's props, toys, or toiletry items etc.

2 Natural and Man Made Objects

Make a study or studies of one of the following subjects:

- (a) Three different decorated coffee mugs one of which is lying on its side or is broken. Either
- Or (b) A potted plant in flower.
- Or (c) A number of colourful and intricate decorations such as those that are used for house adornment during the time of a festival.
- Or (d) Pieces of a young child's jigsaw puzzle. Some are joined together and others lie scattered.

3 The Human Figure

- (a) A model is seated at a table or workbench and is engaged in making cakes or stage Either props. The whole figure should be drawn or painted.
- Or (b) Two models may pose together. One as in Q.3 (a), the other as though giving instruction.
- Or (c) The portrait of a seated person in fancy dress who is gazing into a hand mirror held on the lap. The head, upper body and hands should be the focus of the study.

Candidates may carry out their final examination work in the studio with the aid of their preliminary sketches and/or own photographs for the following question.

4 Interiors or Exteriors

- Either (a) A scene at a farmyard, builder's yard or dump for used cars.
- Or (b) Reflections. Base your studies on items and activities found by a riverside, lake, pond or swimming pool.
- Or (c) A scene framed through gaps between buildings, fences, pylons or trees to the views beyond.
