

MARK SCHEME for the May/June 2013 series

0510 ENGLISH AS A SECOND LANGUAGE

0510/21 Paper 2 (Reading and Writing – Extended),
maximum raw mark 90

This mark scheme is published as an aid to teachers and candidates, to indicate the requirements of the examination. It shows the basis on which Examiners were instructed to award marks. It does not indicate the details of the discussions that took place at an Examiners' meeting before marking began, which would have considered the acceptability of alternative answers.

Mark schemes should be read in conjunction with the question paper and the Principal Examiner Report for Teachers.

Cambridge will not enter into discussions about these mark schemes.

Cambridge is publishing the mark schemes for the May/June 2013 series for most IGCSE, GCE Advanced Level and Advanced Subsidiary Level components and some Ordinary Level components.

SECTION C

Max total for Section C: 2 marks

In the space below, write one sentence of between 12 and 20 words about the most enjoyable part of your research and say why it was so enjoyable.

The sentence must be written in the first person.

Example sentences:

A group of dolphins started to follow the boat and I had never been so close to them before.
I saw dolphins jumping out of the water and it was very exciting.
The most enjoyable part was watching the dolphins and it was really fascinating.

Examples of sentences with no proper sentence construction = zero

For the sentence, award up to 2 marks as follows:

- 2 marks: no fewer than 12 and no more than 20 words; proper sentence construction; correct spelling, punctuation and grammar; relevant to context.
- 1 mark: no fewer than 12 and no more than 20 words; proper sentence construction; 1–3 errors of punctuation / spelling / grammar that do not obscure meaning; relevant to context.
- 0 marks: more than 3 errors of punctuation / spelling / grammar; and/or irrelevant to context, and/or not a proper sentence; and/or fewer than 12 words or more than 20 words.

Absence of a full stop at the end should be considered as 1 punctuation error.
Absence of an upper case letter at the beginning should be considered as 1 punctuation error.
Omission of a word in a sentence should be considered as 1 grammar error.

Max total for exercise 3: 8 marks

Exercise 4 Real-life Quidditch

NB Correct answers only apply if they are placed under the correct sub-heading (as detailed below). Only one mark may be awarded per line.

Only mark the first idea on the line and ignore the rest, even if second idea is correct.

Add the correct answers to give a total out of 9.

Remember that this exercise is marked for content (reading) not language.

Main aims of the two games

(max 2 marks this heading)

- 1 score (as many) goals (as possible) / throw OR kick a volleyball OR quaffle through opposing team's rings
- 2 take OR catch the snitch(tennis ball) (from the runner's possession)

Present problems with Quidditch

(max 3 marks this heading)

Exercise 5 Why are we shrinking?

Do not award language marks if there is no content to reward.

If answers exceed 120 words a maximum of 4 awarded for language.

If a candidate only scores on one aspect of content, maximum of 3 marks awarded for language.

Content: (up to 6 marks)

Why humans have become shorter

- 1 (linked to) agriculture / switch (from hunting) to farming
- 2 shortage of micronutrients / vitamins and / or minerals inadequate / cereals lacked niacin
- 3 (caused) nutritional diseases
- 4 different lifestyle (demands)
- 5 social inequality / dominant class took most food

Why brains have become smaller

- 6 (huge) amount of energy required to maintain large brains
- 7 need to save energy for the increased number of tasks
- 8 evolution / brains smaller but more efficient

Language: (up to 5 marks)

- 0 marks: no understanding of the task / no relevant content / meaning completely obscure due to serious language inaccuracies
- 1 mark: copying without discrimination from text / multiple language inaccuracies
- 2 marks: heavy reliance on language from the text with no attempt to organise and sequence points cohesively / limited language expression making meaning at times unclear
- 3 marks: some reliance on language from the text, but with an attempt to organise and sequence points cohesively / language satisfactory, but with some inaccuracies
- 4 marks: good attempt to use own words and to organise and sequence points cohesively / generally good control of language
- 5 marks: good, concise summary style / very good attempt to use own words and to organise and sequence points cohesively

Max total for exercise 5: 11 marks

Exercise 6 Event to raise money for local charity

Exercise 7 Ability to travel

Transcribing the prompts with no original development by the candidate will limit both content and language marks to the 2–3 band. However, if candidates also include some original ideas, higher marks can be awarded.

The following general instructions, and table of marking criteria, apply to both exercises.

- Award the answer a mark for content (C) [out of 10] and a mark for language (L) [out of 9] in accordance with the General Criteria table that follows.
- Content covers relevance (i.e. whether the piece fulfils the task and the awareness of purpose/audience/register) and the development of ideas (i.e. the detail/explanation provided and how enjoyable it is to read).
- Language covers style (i.e. complexity of vocabulary and sentence structure) and accuracy (of grammar, spelling, punctuation and use of paragraphs).
- When deciding on a mark for content or language, first of all decide which mark band is most appropriate. There will not necessarily be an exact fit. Then decide between 2 marks within that mark band. Use the lower mark if it only just makes it into the band and the upper mark if it fulfils all the requirements of the band but doesn't quite make it into the band above.
- When deciding on a mark for content, look at both relevance and development of ideas. First ask yourself whether the writing fulfils the task, in terms of points to be covered and the length. If it does, it will be in at least the 4–5 mark band.
- When deciding on a mark for language, look at both the style and the accuracy of the language. A useful starting point would be first to determine whether errors intrude. If they do not, it will be in at least the 4-5 mark band.
- The use of paragraphs should not be the primary basis of deciding which mark band the work is in. Look first at the language used and once you have decided on the appropriate mark band, you can use the paragraphing as a factor in helping you to decide whether the work warrants the upper or lower mark in the mark band.
- If the essay is considerably shorter than the stated word length, it should be put in mark band 2-3 for content or lower for not fulfilling the task. The language mark is likely to be affected and is unlikely to be more than one band higher than the content mark.
- If the essay is totally irrelevant and has nothing to do with the question asked, it should be given 0 marks for Content and Language, even if it is enjoyable to read and fluent.
- If the essay is partly relevant and therefore in mark band 2–3, the full range of marks for language is available.

Max total for exercise 6: 19 marks
Max total for exercise 7: 19 marks
