UNIVERSITY OF CAMBRIDGE INTERNATIONAL EXAMINATIONS

International General Certificate of Secondary Education

MARK SCHEME for the May/June 2010 question paper for the guidance of teachers

0470 HISTORY

0470/22

Paper 22, maximum raw mark 50

This mark scheme is published as an aid to teachers and candidates, to indicate the requirements of the examination. It shows the basis on which Examiners were instructed to award marks. It does not indicate the details of the discussions that took place at an Examiners' meeting before marking began, which would have considered the acceptability of alternative answers.

Mark schemes must be read in conjunction with the question papers and the report on the examination.

• CIE will not enter into discussions or correspondence in connection with these mark schemes.

CIE is publishing the mark schemes for the May/June 2010 question papers for most IGCSE, GCE Advanced Level and Advanced Subsidiary Level syllabuses and some Ordinary Level syllabuses.

3 Study Sources D and E. Is one of these sources more useful than the other? Explain your answer using details of the sources and your knowledge.

- Level 1 Fails to address utility writes about the sources [1]
- Level 2 Answers based on undeveloped use of provenance [2–3]
- Level 3 Explains how they are useful because of the information they provide about the Berlin Wall [3–5] or

Explains how they are not useful because of what a source does not tell us about the Berlin Wall i.e. something specific about the wall that is omitted [3–4]

- Level 4 Both aspects of Level 3 [6]
- Level 5 Evaluation of D and/or E to determine utility e.g. by cross reference to Source E, e.g. by doubting reliability of E because he is glorifying his own role/dissociating himself from unpleasant East German regime [7-8]
- 4 Study Source F. How reliable is this source as evidence about the fall of the Berlin Wall? Explain your answer using details of the source and your knowledge.
 - Level 1 It is reliable because of what it says, i.e. uncritical acceptance of what it says [1]
 - Level 2 Undeveloped use of provenance of sources, e.g. reliable because it was written at the time [2]
 - Level 3 Unreliable because of the tone/language of the source e.g. it is over the top must give an example from the source [3]
 - Level 4 Reliable uses generalised cross-reference to confirm what is in the source [4]
 - Level 5 Cross-references to other sources OR to specific knowledge to evaluate the source [5–6]
 - Level 6 Evaluates content of source using West German provenance e.g. it is limited because of its perspective, or it is reliable because this is what people thought must use knowledge [6–7]
